

Creative and Cultural Education

Free workshops

Miss Kaoru Yamazaki is a Japanese woman who is keen to share elements of Japanese culture as widely as possible, particularly with schoolchildren, during her stay in Norfolk (until June 2003). She is offering workshops and activities to suit individual needs and requirements in the following areas of Japanese culture:

Calligraphy
Cooking
Song
Folk Stories
Haiku
Origami
Textiles/Kimono and Jukata
Tea Ceremony
Language Flower arrangements (Ikebana)
Folk Dance
Children's games
Music
Customs
Geography
Religions
Housing/interiors
Dramas

There is no fee involved, although Miss Yamazaki would require the school to arrange travel from Norwich/cover cost of any materials used.

A member of staff should always accompany visiting artists; this is a condition of booking.

For further details and bookings, please contact:

Anna McCarthy

Arts in Education Partnership Co-ordinator

01603 433276

Email: anna.mccarthy.edu@norfolk.gov.uk