

Would you like help in going in the right direction with literacy teaching in your school?

There are over 40 Leading Literacy Teachers working in Primary, Middle and Special Schools across Norfolk who can help you.

They are happy to:

- receive visits from teachers who would like to see literacy teaching in a real classroom context;
- give advice on all aspects of literacy practice including planning and resources;
- support visiting teachers back in their own school as a follow up to training eg. in PIPS, DEW, ELS, GFW, Spelling.

Further information is available from:

Janet Davies and Freda Ablewhite - Literacy Advisers
Professional Development Centre
Woodside Road, Norwich NR7 9QL
Tel: 01603 433276 Fax: 01603 400236
e.mail: advisory.service.edu@norfolk.gov.uk