

NLFL NEW LANDSCAPES FOR LEARNING

An invitation...

...to be part of a major, new Children's Services' project connecting primary schools in Norfolk to the very best in learning, teaching and innovative curriculum design. The NLFL project will help schools to realise the vision of 'Excellence and Enjoyment' and the outcomes of 'Every Child Matters'. Through a series of conferences, workshops and seminars, schools will be linked to the very latest educational thinking, research and practice.

Project directors: Roger Eagle and Chris Hemmings, Senior Primary Advisers

To find out more: come to Easton College on Wednesday, 8th March, 1.30 to 3.30 or West Norfolk PDC on Thursday, 23rd March, 1.30 to 3.30.

RSVP: to book your place, email julia.idiens@norfolk.gov.uk or phone Julia on 01603 433276.

If you are unable to attend either of these sessions, but would like to register your interest in NLFL, please phone Julia as above.

every child matters
a brighter future for Norfolk's young people

