

Norfolk Museums - Spring Term - Special Events

Scroll down to see some of the super learning events on offer in our museums over the coming months. Norfolk County Council schools get free admission to our museums and we can sometimes help with transport costs. There is a modest charge for special events and workshops.

If you would like to join our e-mailing list and receive regular news updates, you can sign up on our web site at www.museums.norfolk.gov.uk

Norwich Castle - Two New Galleries

Discover 600 hundred years of style and design in two brand new galleries: The Arts of Living and Treasure, Trade & the Exotic.

We've put together a programme of events inspired by the Castle's extensive decorative arts collections, with opportunities to investigate and examine objects including ceramics, glass, silver, textiles and costume. More info

Norwich Castle - New Sculpture Exhibition

A brand new exhibition at Norwich Castle explores the development of sculpture in the 1930s through the work of three of the 20th century's leading artists: Henry Moore, Barbara Hepworth and Ben Nicholson.

The exhibition is on show from Saturday 31 January - Sunday 19 April and we have workshops on offer for all key stages. More info

Cromer Museum - Homes and Victorians

Take part in a range of hands on creative workshops for KS1 and KS2 focusing on Homes and the Victorians. You can also book in advance for Seaside Holiday events in the summer term. To find out what else is on offer at Cromer Museum, click here or telephone 01263 513543.

King's Lynn Museums

At the Town House, we have workshops on the Tudors, Victorians and World War II (KS2). Reception and KS1 pupils can enjoy finding out about traditional Toys. At Lynn Museum, take part in a carousel of events celebrating the historic Lynn Mart in All the Fun of the Fair (Reception/KS1). More info

Thetford's 'Real' Dad's Army - Ancient House

We've teamed up with the Dad's Army Museum to bring you this brand new event for KS2/3 pupils. Embark on a mission to keep Churchill's secret papers away from enemy eyes. Meet the Home Guard and handle real objects from WWII. Dates: 5, 6, 7 May 2009

Also NEW for 2009 - Going to the Great Exhibition: Victorian Life at Home and Work. Join the workers at the Charles Burrell Steam Works as they prepare for the Great Exhibition in 1851 and learn what life was like in a Victorian factory. Dates: 13, 14 May 2009

Full Day: £4 per pupil. To book tel. 01842 768500. To get in the spirit, come in costume!

To find out what else is on offer at the Ancient House, click here

Spring Into New Life - Gressenhall Farm and Workhouse

Explore life in all its glory - on the farm, in the garden and through the natural environment. Find out how all the creatures meet their needs. Make nests for our feathered friends, discover the mini beasts that creep, crawl and fly about the garden and search for baby animals on the farm. More info