Dear Headteacher

Once again it is time to invite you and all your staff to the Norfolk County Council party, which is being held at the Exhibition Hall, Royal Norfolk Showground on the evening of Saturday, 21 October 2006.

The party is now in its eighth year, and for the past five years it has attracted almost a full house of 1,000 guests each time.

Each year we welcome some very lively groups of teachers and non teaching staff from a range of different schools around the county.

If you haven't come before, I hope you will want to join us this year bringing your colleagues to make up a table for the night. That way, you can join other county council staff including social workers, architects, fire staff, librarians, museum staff, planners and solicitors from across the county for what promises to be a thoroughly enjoyable night out.

The ticket price this year is £10.00 – included in the price is an excellent meal and live entertainment from the Lee Vasey Band.

A very reasonable bar is also available. Partners are very welcome to the party.

This year's theme is 'Heroes and Villains'! You are invited to come dressed in style - although I must emphasise that this is not compulsory - dress is otherwise informal.

Tickets are available by post from my office at County Hall and in person from the County Hall shop from mid-September. Full details will be given on posters and flyers to be distributed shortly. You can contact my secretary, Terry Siedlecki on 01603 222001 or by email: terry.siedlecki@norfolk.gov.uk, if you would like any further information before then.

I am keen to reinforce the message that the invitation to the party does include all colleagues who work in schools. It would be great to meet you and your staff on 21 October!

With best wishes.

Yours sincerely
