

Preparing for OFSTED Self-evaluating the effectiveness of your Primary School Library

A full day course to help you evaluate your school library by:

- Introducing self-evaluation criteria
- Drawing up a development/improvement plan
- Clarifying the library's role in supporting teaching and learning.

Impending OFSTED? Looking to revitalise your library?

Wednesday March 17th 2004

9.15 a.m.—4.00 p.m.

In the Anna Sewell Room, County Hall Annexe

Cost: £95.00 including lunch

Course leaders: Robin Gregory and Paul Cunningham

To reserve a place, please complete this slip and return by Friday 27th February, 2004 to Jackie Moore, Norfolk School Library Service, County Hall, Martineau Lane, Norwich, Norfolk, NR1 2UA or FAX on (01603) 222264.

Please reserve place(s) on the Self-evaluating the effectiveness of your Primary School Library course at a cost of £95.00 per participant (including lunch)

Name(s) of participant(s).....

School: Signed:

School budget subjective code to be used for this course (a journal will be raised when you book on this course).