

Primary Geography Conference

Date	Time	Venue	Course Code	Event Ref.
28/11/2008	09:15 - 16:15	Wells Field Studies Centre	ECND7	A

Course Context/Audience:

This course is suitable for those Primary teachers with an interest in Geography, those who are Geography subject leaders or those who wish to gather a few new ideas for teaching Geography creatively. This is an opportunity to get together with other colleagues interested in Primary Geography. We hope this day will give you plenty of new ideas for making your geography curriculum fresh, motivating and relevant.

Objectives:

We will use the comfortable surroundings of Wells Field Studies Centre (an Eco-Centre) to explore creative ways of teaching Primary Geography. There will be a mixture of whole group sessions and optional workshops so that you can tailor your day towards your own areas of interest, and we will be inviting a variety of people to facilitate sessions.

Participants will go away having:

- an understanding of the Primary Geography Curriculum
- a range of Geographical activities suitable for Primary pupils
- explored some useful books/resources that can support the delivery of Primary Geography
- a good sense of well-being having had a fun day with like-minded colleagues.

We have scheduled a 20 minute 'sharing' session because of the wealth of good practice that already exists in Norfolk Schools. Please bring along one or two resources/lessons/ideas you have found useful/successful.

Course Leader/s: Andrew Coles, Deputy Head of Environmental & Outdoor Learning Team
Jo Godwin, Field Teacher – Holt Hall Field Studies Centre
Nell Seal, Lead Teacher – Wells Field Studies Centre

Phase: Primary and Junior Schools
