

Celebrating the Natural World with International Words!

Primary Languages Collage Competition!

Looking for an exciting and creative summer term activity?
Enter our cross-curricular competition: Languages, Art, Environment...

Summary: Create a collage from waste packaging that contains international words!
Ask your class/school to collect waste paper/package on which they find words in different languages. Be creative to create a colourful collage on the theme 'The Natural World'.

1st PRIZE: Box of language resources with a £100+ value

2nd PRIZE: Box of language resources with a £75+ value

3rd PRIZE: Box of language resources with a £50+ value

1st prize winning school will also receive a free place at the Oct 24th Conference (below)

Photographs of all the best entries will be professionally mounted for an exhibition at the Norfolk Primary Languages Conference at the John Innes Centre: Oct 24th 2008
(the exhibition will move to the NPDC, County Hall and WNPDC in 2009)

Competition rules

- Collages could be individual, group or class efforts. The collage should be a picture without text based on the theme: 'The Natural World'. Examples could be:
 - single or group depiction of plant/animal life
 - a landscape/underwater scene etc.
- At least 50% of the collage should be made from waste paper/package containing written text in a language or languages other than English e.g. penne, baguette, Schwarzbrot!
 - This international text waste paper/package could include: magazines & newspapers, tickets, holiday brochures, fruit labels, pasta/cereal/cosmetics/ toy/shampoo/fast food packets etc. (but not text printed from the internet!)
 - The collage should not have words actually written on it in a foreign language...the only text should be an integral part of the packaging used to create the picture
 - A collage could be any size but the final photographs will be mounted as A1... (landscape or portrait) and so larger collages will photograph better.
- Collages will be judged on:
 - 1) Artistic composition
 - 2) Imaginative use of international text/waste paper as collage materials
- Judges: Debbie Abbs (PL adviser), Anna McCarthy (Arts Project Development Officer)

Please email a high quality digital image of collage (max. 5 entries per school) by July 31st 2008 to joan.dickie@norfolk.gov.uk. With your entry please include:

1. A title for the collage (in English)
2. Your school's name and a contact person
3. Ages and name(s) of collage makers or class

For further competition queries please contact: lisa.poploski@norfolk.gov.uk