

Do you teach or coordinate PSHE?

If so, you might be interested in the PSHE CPD - a nationally recognised qualification in PSHE

Brief Outline

The PSHE CPD programme for teachers (from Foundation Stage to Key Stage 4) runs from July 2009 until June 2010 and involves the construction of a portfolio of evidence and reflections on good practice in PSHE. The programme includes a particular focus on Sex and Relationships Education (SRE).

Support is given from the PSHE leads (Molly Potter and Anna Sims) as:

- 4 training days which are compulsory
 - 3rd July 2009
 - 15th October 2009
 - 20th November 2009
 - Final date to be confirmed
- 3 twilight sessions (4.30 – 6 p.m.) dates tbc
- Individual support as needed - visits, phone calls and e mails.

There will be a substantial time commitment beyond those outlined above to construct the portfolio.

Who can apply?

- Any qualified teacher with experience of teaching or coordinating PSHE.

Cost

- There are no cost implications to participants as the programme is covered by national funding from the DCSF. Supply cover is provided for at least three of the compulsory training days.
