Course Context/Audience:

The course is aimed at subject leaders and other members of staff with responsibilities for management of PE. School Sports Co-ordinators should attend this course in order to be able to support primary phase schools. These courses are aimed at schools that did not attend one of the earlier courses or where previously trained staff have moved on. Individuals who have attended previously DO NOT need to attend again unless they feel that their knowledge base or practice may need updating.

Objectives:

This course is accredited to and certified by the Association for Physical Education. Following on from earlier courses, the course will provide a clear framework on managing risks in PE, answer specific questions with regard to Health and Safety; ensure all schools comply with legislation and good practice in relation to the teaching of PE in schools; ensure schools comply with H&S legislation in relation to recording and controlling risks; provide schools with the current good practice guide for H&S in PE; ensure colleagues are informed and confident in assessing hazards and risks.

Course Leader/s: Martin Radmore

Phase: Primary/Secondary Schools
