

PRIMARY LANGUAGES: November 2008 - July 2009 REGIONAL SUPPORT GROUPS (RSG) NORFOLK NORTH and NORFOLK SOUTH

The Norfolk (and national) RSGs are funded by Cilt, the National Centre for Languages.

- Meetings are free of charge and open to all primary and secondary colleagues and students.
- We offer practical and innovative ideas for Primary Languages in the classroom, the chance to view resources, advice on curriculum planning and networking opportunities.
- All sessions are from 4.30 pm to 6.00 pm with refreshments from 4.00 pm.
- Details are also available to view on: www.nacell.org.uk/regional/east/norfolk.htm
- If you live near the Suffolk, Lincolnshire or Cambridgeshire borders you would be very welcome to attend their RSG meetings as advertised on the Nacell website (see above).

Five Tempting Twilight Titles for 2008/9 Norfolk North (new!) and Norfolk South RSGs ! Dates and venues overleaf

1. A European Christmas Hamper!

Presenters: Norfolk PL advisers/leading teachers Come to our 'hands on' Christmas RSG with each of the following in French, German and Spanish (with words/music/ templates/recipes/ pictures to take back to your classrooms) eg. sing a Christmas song; taste traditional food with a recipe for your class to copy; join in with a 'making' activity ; hear about Christmas traditions. For teachers and TAs of all language abilities.

2. Parachute Games in French/German/Spanish

Presenters: Norfolk PL advisers. These very popular sessions were run last year in Norwich, Kings Lynn, Yarmouth and Kenninghall. Two more venues have been chosen for 2009. Suitable for teachers and TAs of all language abilities!

3. The Magic of Languages

Presenter: Lucy Adamson: Cilt PL adviser. We will look at how the use of magic can inspire children in their language learning. Lucy will demonstrate some simple tricks using limited language and show how children can make progress across all 5 strands of the KS2 framework. There will be plenty of practical activities that are easily replicable in the primary languages classroom. Suitable for all language abilities.

4. Inspiring Ideas for a Languages Day A roadshow visiting 8 of Norfolk's 13 localities

Presenters: Norfolk PL advisers and leading teachers. Come and share some great practical ideas for organising a languages day (or week) in your school/cluster. You might be thinking about this for later in the summer term or you could save the ideas for the 26th September: the European Day of Languages. Mostly in English!

5. Puppet Pandemonium!

Presenters: Norwich Puppet Theatre! Inspiring and fun ideas for making and using puppets in your primary languages lessons. Suitable for all language abilities.
