

Dear Headteacher,

I am sorry that I am not able to write to you all personally.

Many of you know me as Sally Ginn – I have worked for Ginn, Heinemann and Rigby for 17 years covering all the primary and middle schools in Norfolk. It is with sadness that I shall no longer be doing this. Ginn, Heinemann and Rigby have had a restructure and Norfolk is now to be part of the Cambridgeshire, Lincolnshire team and I am to cover Suffolk and Essex. I have loved working with you all from Hunstanton to Diss and from Gt Yarmouth to Thetford. I shall miss your enthusiasm, the individuality of all your schools and the characters that I have met along the way. Thank you all for being such a delight to work with over the years.

If you have any queries please now refer them to Alix Smith who is a colleague and friend. She is a flying rep covering areas that haven't got anyone until someone is appointed. She covers Maths, Science, ICT, French and all your Literacy Needs. She is great and will help you in any way she can.
