The deadline for booking a place on a School Improvement Module (SIM) is fast approaching.

Deadline: 30th April 2006

School Improvement Modules have proved popular with over 250 Norfolk schools since their introduction in 2002. By providing 21 hours of training and support, they aim to help schools to evaluate current practice, identify best practice, plan effective ways forward and gather evidence of impact.

School Improvement Module Programme 2006

- Developing the Use of ICT in Music
- Effecting Improvement In and Through ICT: Realising the Vision
- Extended Learning Schools
- Including Gifted and Talented Pupils
- Innovative Curriculum Design
- Leading Learning - Raising Standards in Writing at KS2
- Learning In and Through the Arts
- Professional Learning: Realising the Potential of Your Staff
- School Improvement Through Self-Evaluation: the complete guide
- Thinking Maths: Using Mathematics to Develop Children's Thinking and Communication Skills

Small Schools with 100 pupils or less can purchase one complete module on repayment of the total sum delegated for advisory support.

Special Schools and Schools with more than 100 pupils can purchase up to two modules per school.
