

Pastoral Care Network Meeting

Self- Esteem

Adults working in schools frequently become aware that children and young people can suffer from low self-esteem and that this can affect their ability to succeed in school, relate to others with confidence and feel happy and content.

This session will consider:

- Ways in which pastoral staff in schools can enhance the self-esteem of pupils with whom they work.

It will also examine:

- Ways in which the self-esteem of all pupils in the school can be developed through daily interactions and school culture as a whole.

Date: Thursday March 19th

Time: 16:00 – 18:30

Venue: Norwich Professional Development Centre

Course Ref: ENHD2

Refreshments available on arrival from 16:00

Session will be led by Martin Langsdon, BEST (Central Area)

There is no charge for this twilight as it is part of the support available to schools through Healthy Norfolk Schools.
