

Norfolk County Council at your service

Educational Psychology & Specialist Support invite you to a FREE event...

SEN NORFOLK 2007 Conference & Exhibition

‘Making a Difference’

Thursday 13th September 9:00 – 4:00
Sportspark, University of East Anglia, Norwich

An opportunity to hear John Bayley ‘live’ in Norfolk

If you have a particular interest in managing pupils behaviour then the 2 seminar presentations will be of interest....

John Bayley is an experienced practitioner having worked in mainstream settings, PRUs and within Support & Advisory Services.

John frequently lectures on managing extreme behaviours and his training materials, focusing on professional development for school based staff, are highly regarded.

John has featured in forty programmes in the regular spot “Teaching with Bayley” on Teachers TV.

His seminars will consider:

- Getting inside behaviour management
- In house training ~ the key to collegiality
- Teaching the Plan and sticking to it!

Full details of these and 14 other seminars, 16 drop in sessions, 100+ exhibitors and venue can be found at:

www.terrapin.norfolk.sch.uk

or phone 01603 671400 for further information