

Pre-Retirement Planning for Teaching Staff

Why should you take this programme?

To explore what retirement will mean to you, what options you may have and what choices you may like to make.

For some people the transition into retirement, or semi-retirement, will be a welcome change and present few problems; for others it will mean a totally new way of life, particularly for those who have not been able to prepare.

Programme Content

- Explanation of the Teachers Pension Scheme
- State retirement pension eligibility
- Planning for the future
- Making sense of investment options and where to get financial advice
- Opportunities to help in the voluntary sector
- Making the most of your retirement
- Why write a will
- Health and fitness
- Guest speakers and opportunity to ask questions
- Each course member has a copy of the Good non-Retirement Guide to take away

Who is it for?

Any teaching staff considering retiring in the next eighteen months.
