

Tudors at Strangers' Hall, Norwich

An day of Tudor-related activities for Key Stage 2 pupils

June 14th, 15th, 17th and 18th 2004

10.00am-2.00pm

Strangers' Hall Museum in Norwich is offering Key Stage 2 pupils the opportunity to learn more about the Tudors using the building and its collection of objects.

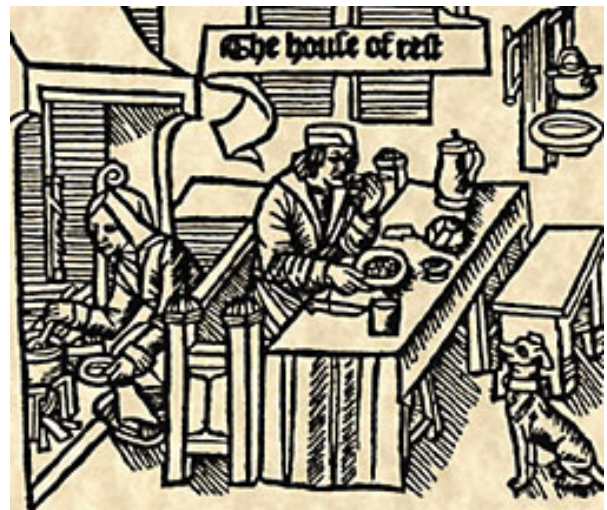

In the morning your pupils will:

- take part in an object-handling session
- work on a Tudor inventory
- tour the Tudor rooms in Strangers' Hall

In the afternoon your pupils will have the opportunity to study hands-on one aspect of life in Tudor times in-depth. You can choose from:

- Tudor music and dance
- Tudor costume
- Tudor food

The cost of the event is £3.50 per pupil (including admission). All accompanying adults are free.

If you would like your class to take part in this exciting opportunity then you can book a place by calling Colin Hynson on (01603) 495891. You can also specify which of the special afternoon sessions you would like your class to take.
