

Young Musician's Platform

A concert opportunity to support our very highest achieving instrumentalists in the following categories

- Instrumentalists in Years 8 - Year 13

Dear Headteacher

Gifted and Talented Programme

Following my recent letter I am pleased to enclose copies of invitations for pupils year 8 and older to perform in the spring concert platform series and ask that you forward these to the appropriate staff.

The series is an opportunity for young high ability players to share a platform with other young musicians in the county of the same ability and to gain further and much needed experience of public performance.

The invitation return slip is sent to Jessica Berners who will then contact each performer with the appropriate details. If you or your music teachers have any further enquiries please do not hesitate to contact Jessica or myself at the above address.

Best Wishes
Maureen Hanke

Norfolk Music Education Service is pleased to support a series of area concerts throughout the Spring Term in 2004. The concerts form part of our Gifted and Talented programme providing an opportunity for our very best young musicians to celebrate their achievements so far.

Each concert will have a formal feel, and therefore it is important to be prepared in all aspects of performance. Please dress appropriately in a smart but comfortable fashion.

Performers should prepare 1 (or 2 short pieces) not exceeding 10 minutes.

Performers must provide their own accompanist although CD backing tracks are permitted for percussionists and guitarists only.

Pupils may prefer to perform duets or small ensembles that may be directed by staff.

The concerts will all start at 7.30pm and will be held as follows

Senior Pupils Concert (year 8 - year 13)

TUESDAY 16th MARCH	ATTLEBOROUGH HS
WEDNESDAY 17th MARCH	HEWETT HS
THURSDAY 18th MARCH	SPRINGWOOD HS
WEDNESDAY 24th MARCH	NORTH WALSHAM HS
THURSDAY 25th MARCH	SHERINGHAM HS
WEDNESDAY 31st MARCH	CAISTER HS

Entry to perform in the concert is free. Norfolk Music Education Service reserves the right to arrange the order of performance for each concert and to select from applications accordingly. If there are too many applicants you may be asked to join our second concert platform series later in the year
