

Keswick Hall Centre for Research and Development in RE, University of East Anglia, Norwich

Study Weekend for Teachers of Religious Education in all phases and sectors of education

Spirituality, Implicit Religion and Identity - what is RE for?

Topics to be explored:

- The QCA (non-statutory) National Framework for RE
- Ethics and Philosophy in RE and Religious Studies
 - Modern and post modern Spiritualities
 - Perceptions of Secularity
 - Concepts within implicit religion
 - Humanism and its place in the RE Curriculum
 - RE and Identity
 - RE and Citizenship Education

6 pm 30th September 2005 until 4 pm 2nd October at UEA Please see RE Centre Website <http://www.uea.ac.uk/edu/> for further details on the programme, speakers, registration options and costs or phone Emma Koro on 01603 592632