

THE TEMPEST

Specially adapted for schools by The New Wolsey Theatre, Ipswich and suitable for Primary Schools (years 5 & 6) & Secondary Schools

Wednesday 2 to Saturday 12 November

When Prospero unleashes a raging tempest on an unsuspecting ship the ensuing action takes the audience on a rollercoaster ride of revenge, restitution and reckoning.

Shipwrecked with the Royal party on the shores of the island is Prospero's betraying brother armed with a plot to murder the King of Naples. Glimpsed through the exotic foliage of the indigenous trees Ferdinand and Miranda fall in love and deep down in the dank, dark caves a native man and two fools plan to overthrow Prospero and take the island for themselves.

In a true ensemble and physical production the New Wolsey Theatre make Shakespeare's profound text easily accessible using inventive staging, striking physical imagery, music and direct contact with the audience.

This 90-minute production will maintain all the essential elements and plotlines.
