Garlic Theatre are touring their new interactive production of The Three Billy Goats Gruff in Nurseries, First schools and Primary schools throughout the Eastern Region as from November 2005.

The simple story of three hungry goats and a grumpy old troll told with a gentle ecological message. Including the dance of the goats, the flying troll and loads and loads of rubbish...

Designed especially for 3 to 6 year olds, the children are invited to enter the imaginative world of the story. They sit either side of the stream and are involved in the action throughout. With beautifully crafted puppets, live music and bags of comedy, the show is an ideal first theatrical experience for young children.

Schools who take the opportunity of bringing Billy Goats Gruff to their children will benefit from the magical experience of seeing live theatre, talking with the artists and seeing how the puppets are made.

Our aims

The aims of this puppet production are :

- To stimulate children's imagination and encourage them to question and think about the meaning of the story.
- To emphasise, in a fun way, the importance of putting rubbish in the bin and introduce the idea of recycling.
- To involve them in a theatrical experience so they can participate with their friends in a welcoming and learning environment.
- To involve children in our creative process by talking to them about how our puppets were made and share with them how we develop our ideas.
