

Re-Creations of Everyday 16th Century Life

late June/early July or late September each year

An experience no child will want to forget
The most popular historic venue for schools in East Anglia
An unmatched teaching resource

Kentwell Re-Creations bring the 16th Century to life - in the most fascinating and enthralling way

Kentwell is one of England's finest Tudor houses, moated and set in its own extensive grounds amidst open Suffolk countryside. There are two Tudor Re-Creations for schools to visit, which add life, colour and activity to Kentwell's unmatched Tudor atmosphere.

All the organizing teacher has to do...

- call 01787 310207 & make a booking

- thereafter follow Kentwell advice and instructions

What Kentwell does...

- organizes what your party does and where it goes while at Kentwell
- provides Tudor costume making notes
- suggests teaching aids and classroom projects
- arranges a preparation seminar for visiting Teachers
- provides risk assessments

The Great Annual Re-Creation of Tudor Life - late June/early July

Unrivalled anywhere as a resource of 16th Century everyday life.

Enter the Time Tunnel to emerge in Tudor England: meet Alchemists secretly experimenting; Archers hitting (or not) the boss; Bakers baking in the bakehouse; Brewers brewing (in one of the country's earliest brewhouses); Cooks striving to feed many; Dairymaids making butter and cheese; Ostlers and horses; Persons of quality displaying latest Court fashions, dancing or musing over the issues of the day; Potters potting; Seamstresses with nimble fingers; Smiths labouring at the forge; Woolworkers spinning, weaving and dyeing and many more. Nearly every aspect of life on a 16th Century Manor may be encountered as people of all degrees go about their daily lives. It is the scale and range of activities which make the Great Annual Re-Creation unique.

The Michaelmas Re-Creation - late September

Much the same as the Great Annual Re-Creation but on a smaller scale and with no Time Tunnel entrance.

What the teachers say...

"One visit to a Kentwell Re-Creation is worth a year in the classroom."
"The most unbelievable experience which the children will never forget"
"...a day without lessons... that covered lots of different subjects"

What the children say...

"Thank you for leaving the boring bits out"
"It's like being part of a story"
