

‘MODERN DAY BAYEAUX TAPESTRY’ HEADS TO NORWICH!

QUAKER TAPESTRY ROADSHOW AT NORWICH CATHEDRAL

1st February - 11th March 2006

Created by 4000 men, women and children aged between 4 and 90, the Quaker Tapestry is one of the world's largest community textile projects. The exhibition will be free of charge to all schools and is a wonderful cross-curricular resource, bringing together Art and Design, RE and three centuries of social History.

The exhibition is free for schools to visit between 10.00am and 4.00pm, Monday to Friday.

Introductory talks can be given and the visit can be combined with a tour around the cathedral itself.

For all school bookings, please contact Saul Penfold at Norwich Cathedral on 01603 218320 or email education@cathedral.org.uk

FREE TRAINING SESSION!

A FREE workshop for teachers and other educationalists will be held on Wednesday 1st February 2006 between 2.00 and 4.00pm at Norwich Cathedral.

Bridget Guest, the Exhibition Director, will offer practical advice on making the most of your exhibition visit and how children can access the Tapestry and its stories. There will also be an opportunity to visit the exhibition in situ.

This is a great opportunity not to be missed!

To book a place on this workshop, please contact Saul Penfold on 01603 218320 or education@cathedral.org.uk
