

Creative Careers Fair 2006

Sunday 5 March 2006, 10am - 5pm - The Garage, Norwich

Free drop-in event

Ever considered a career in the arts, but just don't know where to begin?

A wide variety of professionals will be on hand to offer advice and inspiration as well as a range of educational and training establishments that can help you to identify the skills you need for your chosen career.

Whether it's acting, dance, music, visual arts, writing, set design or arts management that floats your boat, there will be a mass of ideas, information and advice available: meet professionals from a wide range of creative fields, find out how they got started and what the job is really like.

Unlike traditional careers events, the day at The Garage will be hands on. Have a go at TV presenting thanks to ITV Anglia, who'll be broadcasting live from the event. There's also the chance to sample DJ-ing, and take a tour of BBC East's Norfolk studios.

Talks from professionals cover how to make it in the media, what it's really like to be a jobbing actor, writing for television and novels, animation and more.

Stallholders include: ITV Anglia, Film and Digital Media Exchange, Norwich School of Art and Design, The BBC, Norwich Theatre Royal, Sainsbury Centre for Visual Arts, The New Writing Partnership, Northern Ballet Theatre, Eggbox Publishing, Screen East, Future Radio, Access to Music and many many more...

We are also pleased to welcome FDMX (Film and Digital Media Exchange) as partners in the fair, providing valuable expertise in maximising opportunities in this sector.

for more details please email info@thegarage.org.uk