

♦ Shelter from the Storm? ♦

in Norwich Cathedral

4th – 16th September 2006

Can religion and science offer us fresh insights into our relationship with the natural world?

A dynamic and interactive dialogue between religion and science exploring the issues of global warming and climate change...

for 14 – 19 year olds

Friday 8th September 2006

- Participate in an open-ended, fresh and topical debate with eminent scientists and theologians. This will explore the power of nature and issues such as order and chaos, freedom of choice, humankind's rights and responsibilities and God the 'absentee landlord'.

Advance booking is essential for this event.

(There will be a small charge of £2 per student)

And also in place from 4th – 16th September

- Provocative audio-visual art installation in the Cathedral Crossing
- 'Changing the Climate, Changing Ourselves' – A Climate Change and Sustainability Exhibition
 - Science Trail exploring the Cathedral building
- 'Healing and the Natural World' in the Herb Garden

This exciting programme is an integral part of the BA Festival of Science, hosted by the University of East Anglia, Norwich Research Park and Norwich City Council.

For more information and to reserve places for any part of the programme, please contact:

Saul Penfold, Head of Education; 01603 218320 or education@cathedral.org.uk