PRODUCTION FOR 2006

A HISTORY MYSTERY WITH UNCLE RAY

By Juliet Eve

'What a day! To think I've met all these people! I can hardly believe it! I never knew how our ancestors lived.'

PERFORMANCES NOW TOURING JUNIOR AND MIDDLE SCHOOLS IN NORFOLK

Covering Key Stage 2 programme of study including 3 British history studies and one European for years 3 to 6.

This lively show takes us back in chronological order to the time of Invaders, Tudors and Victorians, as well as the world of ancient Greek myth.

The eccentric Uncle Ray and the children meet an Iceni woman, a Saxon pirate and king, scary Zeus and his demi-gods, a dastardly Tudor duke and his pitiful peasant and sad Susan from the match factory.

A funny and touching tale, which explores the social and economic changes brought about by the lives of our ancestors. Audience participation is strongly encouraged, with use of imaginative visual aids and songs.
