Refugee Week 2006

Resources for Teaching about Asylum Seekers & Refugees

Our work around Refugee Week (19th to 25th June) will aim to deliver positive messages that celebrate the contributions that Refugees make to Norfolk and the UK, and counter the fear, ignorance and negative stereotypes of Refugees and Asylum Seekers through arts, cultural and educational events.

These teaching resources – and many more (a full Resources Catalogue is available) – are available for sale and/or for loan from NEAD. For more information contact Sarah Gann at NEAD:

Home from Home

A guidance and resource book for the welcome and inclusion of refugee children and families in school.

All ages Save the Children/Salusbury World £20.45

Supporting Refugee Children in 21st Century Britain

This handbook provides information on many different refugee groups in British society. It explores new approaches to education for refugee children, using expressive arts with young children, parental involvement, and family literacy.

Ages 3–18 Trentham Books £19.99

The Colour of Home by Mary Hoffman

Hassan is a Somali refugee, recently arrived in a cold, grey country. At school, he paints a picture of his home in Somalia in bright sunny colours, but the harsh reds and blacks he adds reveal a darker side to Hassan's experience of the homeland he has recently left behind. By the end of the story, he is able to appreciate the colours of his new home.

Ages 5–9 Frances Lincoln
£5.99

Refugees: a resource book

This book examines the causes of conflicts which force families to flee, and explains why they arrive in Britain as refugees. The testimonies of young refugees help children in the classroom to empathise with the difficulties of being uprooted and trying to make a life in a strange place.

KS1/2 Refugee Council £5.00

Kosovan Journeys

BIG BOOK

Two refugee children from Kosova talk about their lives, their families, their reasons for leaving Kosova, and their hopes for the future. The book helps to develop empathy with refugees at a time of growing hostility to them in the UK.

KS2 Refugee Council £7.00

Real Life Stories: Living as a Refugee

With colour photos and fascinating text, this narrative tells the moving story, in his own words, of a young person moving from Afghanistan to start a new life in America, alongside factual information about the issues he faces.

Ages 11–14 Ticktock Media £5.99

I Am Here: teaching about refugees, identity, inclusion and the media

VIDEOPACK

Six one-hour lessons use drama, case studies and video clips to tackle this controversial subject and stimulate critical thinking. Young people are encouraged to link their own sense of belonging with the acceptance and inclusion of people from diverse backgrounds. The pack includes materials for training teachers to teach about refugees.

Ages 11–14/ITE Save the Children £16.10

One Day We Had to Run

This book tells the true stories of three children who were forced to become refugees. They fled from their homes in Somalia, Sudan and Ethiopia, leaving their families and facing many dangers before reaching a refugee camp in Kenya. Beautifully produced and illustrated with photographs and the children's own paintings.

KS2/3 Evans Brothers £9.99

All You Need for a Refugee Assembly

Material for three assemblies and three complementary lessons on refugees to help teachers inform and educate pupils about refugees, and challenge myths and stereotypes. A range of photocopiable material includes photos of famous refugees, case studies, a refugee quiz and a rap.

KS2/3/4 RISC £4.00

Issues Series: Refugees

Looking at the issues surrounding refugees and asylum seekers, this book looks at subjects such as what refugees are, why people leave their countries, refugee situations in the UK and rest of the world, myths and facts, migration, economic arguments, what asylum seekers can contribute, and the English immigration test.

Reference/Post-16 Independence Educational Publishers £7.75

Moving Here – The Refugee Experience

A teaching activity book for Citizenship, PSHE and English. Featuring a wealth of photocopiable material, including case studies, testimonies, and role play and prompt cards; a variety of activity types, which can be adapted for use by younger or older children; themes including identity, rights, exclusion and prejudice; full links to the English national curriculum. Moving Here helps teachers and pupils make links between the refugees of today and other migrants, past and present, including Roman soldiers and British workers in Saudi Arabia.

KS2/3/4 Sheffield Ethnic Minority Service/DECSY £7.25

World Issues Series: Refugees

This title on refugees looks at: What causes refugees? Why don't governments do more? What problems do refugees face? Do refugees ever return home?
