

Norwich International Animation Festival

Animated Calling Cards

Wednesday 18th October at 10.00 to 12.00 am at Norwich Arts Centre

Screen East in association with the Norwich International Animation Festival is pleased to present an event for young people 12 - 21 exploring opportunities for developing skills and creativity through animation.

Introduced by Martin Ayres, Head of Audiences and Education

Sam Lee – Production Executive for Digital Shorts at Screen East will present the annual scheme to support new talent in the East of England with animators from 2006 Digital Shorts including screenings of:

The Technical Hitch 6mins written by Luke Wright & directed and produced by Jon Dunleavy

Bowling for Doreen 7 mins written and directed by Brent Lockley, produced and animated by Gary McConville

Blasted Angels 5 min written by Paul Burke directed by Ian Claxton and Andy Pritchett, produced by Ugly Studios, Norwich.

Developing an idea: Hannah Giffard, Creative Director for Red Fox Productions who created the acclaimed animated series for CBBC – Pablo the Little Red Fox will discuss how to develop an idea and storyboard for animation and children's stories.

Funding Opportunities

First Light is a UK wide funding initiative supported by the UK Film Council to assist young people between 5 and 18 in making their first film. Yen Yau - Strategic Partnerships Manager at First Light Movies will present a programme of animated films selected for First Light and discuss how to develop and apply for support.

Guy Martin, Education Manager for Cinema Plus – the Norfolk Moving Image Education Consortium will present the BAFTA – 60 seconds of Fame scheme for over 16s and other current opportunities.

Each presentation will include a Q & A session and the event will end with a final panel Q & A discussion. The event is free but as places are limited they should be reserved by prior booking to guarantee entry. Doors open at 9.30 but please arrive ten minutes before the start time.
