

Christmas Past – Where does Christmas come From?

Friday 1st December

A celebration of Christmas traditions at Norwich Cathedral with Hands On The Past's costumed interpreters.

The event is intended to focus on Christmas in Tudor times (food, presents, decorations, clothes , traditions etc) but can be adapted to look at other key periods: Anglo Saxon , Victorian and the World War 2 Christmas if there is sufficient demand for this.

Costs will be £6 per child. Most suitable for primary through to Key Stage 3 (Lower Secondary). Places are limited so book soon!

For more information, or to discuss a booking, please contact Jill Napier, Community Education, Norwich Cathedral, 01603 218321 or communitylearning@cathedral.org.uk