Come and find out about the Leading from the Middle Programme

Thursday 1st February 2007
4.30pm – 5.30pm
Ramada Beveridge Way Hotel, Kings Lynn
Beveridge Way, Kings Lynn Norfolk

Leading from the Middle is a three-term professional development programme for middle leaders in primary, secondary and special schools.

Participants include subject leaders, subject coordinators, heads of year/house/departments, pastoral co-ordinators, SENCOs.

The programme is designed for a 'Learning Set' from each school, consisting of between 2-4 participants and a leadership coach.

The programme includes

- Development days – face-to-face training days focusing on leadership skills
- Online communities – for the extension of learning, sharing of ideas and peer support.
- A School Leadership Project which allows the development of new expertise in your school.
- Online learning leadership materials – web-based resources offering access to information, essential training and development tools.
- The Virtual School (new version for 2007) - a computer-simulated school in which leaders can experiment with new ideas.
