

'make school make sense in Norfolk'
for children with an Autistic Spectrum Disorder including Asperger syndrome

'Solutions are not rocket science!'

'drop-in' or stay as long as you like

23rd April 2007

9:30 – 18:30

Entrance fee:

Parents free

Others £10 each to help cover the costs of this event

Dereham Football Club

- Bookable workshops
- Bookable Short Seminars
- Exhibitions of resources
- Information
- Find out what's available in Norfolk
- National Autistic Society Book stall
- 'freebies' and more...

The recently released prevalence studies show that 1 in 100 children are on the autistic spectrum, which means that ALL teachers can expect to teach at least one of these children.

For more information and a booking form please contact:

Anne Ebbage at Asperger East Anglia

tel: 01603 620500 or voicemail: 07776 231485

or email: anne@asperger.org.uk

ASPERGER EAST ANGLIA

NORFOLK AUTISTIC SOCIETY

Working with parents, Norfolk Children's Services, schools and the ASD Steering group