

LEARNING FOR LIFE

Learning for Life is a values education, life skills programme aiming to foster health, safety, personal and social development of young people and to encourage good citizenship.

This unique programme offers a continuum of learning for 5-13 year olds and promotes positive ethos within the school community. It consists of 3 volumes with 155 fun, interactive lessons with clear lesson plans and extension activities encouraging core skills on a cross-curricular basis.

Each CD-ROM contains printable lesson overviews that provide clear content guidelines, curricular links, suggestions for assessment, parental involvement and extension activities. In addition, there are worksheets, an updated printable version of the Police Box and staff development materials.

Volume 1
Bullying, Drugs Sense and Vandalism

Volume 2
Safety, Citizenship/ Law and Order

Volume 3
Diversity and Harmony

The Police Box

Learning for life is the original, pioneering Grampian Police initiative. The police box is a card-based resource covering Bullying, Drugs, Vandalism, Safety, Citizenship/Law and Order. Diversity and Harmony are the two additional sections recently produced. The cards are double-sided, one side is for pupil use, the other designed to support the teacher. Whilst being a stand-alone resource, the police box also complements and extends the philosophy and contents of all Learning for Life CD-ROMs.
