

WILD ABOUT THE WENSUM 19TH MAY 10am - 5pm
Pensthorpe Nature Reserve, Fakenham

The launch of a new environmental awareness event.

Celebrity opening by Professor David Bellamy OBE

FREE entry, parking and activities including:

guides walks, bird watching, talks on "magical wetlands", "buglife" and "identifying bird calls and songs", nature quizzes, puzzles and games, local crafts, puppet making, facepainting, bird box making, sensory garden, recycling display, folk dancing, crown making with the Fairyland Trust, cycle proficiency challenge, practical tracking with the RSPCA and much more.

With over 40 exhibitors, including Norfolk Wildlife Trust, Norfolk Ornithologists' Association, Hawk and Owl Trust, RSPB, and Wensum Valley Trust.

IT'S AN ACTION PACKED DAY NOT TO MISS!

See www.wildaboutthewensum.org.uk for more details

WILD

ABOUT THE WENSUM

The launch of a new environmental awareness event

Hosted by

Pensthorpe
CONSERVATION TRUST

Saturday 19th May 2007

- FREE entry and parking • Open 10am - 5pm
- Donations to support the Bittern Conservation species
- Celebrity Opening by Professor David Bellamy OBE

Come and join us for a great day out in the stunning setting of Pensthorpe Nature Reserve. There are so many activities and special things to do: storytelling, guided walks, bird watching, buglife, environmental displays and talks including "magical wetlands", "dragonflies" and "identifying bird calls and songs", nature quizzes, puzzles, local craft demonstrations, puppet making, face painting, folk dancing, bird box making, sensory garden, recycling display, crown making with the Fairyland Trust, cycling proficiency challenge, practical tracking with the RSPCA...

...it's

1 mile from Fakenham off the A1067. T: 01328 851465 www.pensthorpe.com