

The National Association for Primary Education

The First Festival of Voices in Norwich
2007 Booking Form

Thursday 28th June

St Andrews Hall, Norwich

This festival is open to children aged between 8 and 13 years and is a chance for youngsters from all over the Eastern Region to come together for an afternoon rehearsal and then perform in the early evening. Schools can choose which children take part. They may have a choir they wish to put into the festival or a particular class teacher may bring a whole class. It is a fantastic occasion for children and we hope you will be able to join us and enjoy the wonderful atmosphere of the FOV. The first national festival started at the Royal Albert Hall in 1987 with nearly 1,700 children. In the past there have been FOVs in Cambridge, Luton, Bedford, Hatfield, the Birmingham Symphony Hall and the Wembley Conference Centre. This year there is a regional FOV in Oxfordshire and the national FOV at Fairfield's Halls, Croydon

Participating schools will receive a song book which can be photocopied, a music book and a rehearsal CD to prepare the teachers and children for the event.

Prices are as follows:	Participant children	£2.50
	Supervisory adults (1 per 10 children)	£2.50
	Audience tickets - adults	£6.00
	- children	£3.00
