

ANTI-BULLYING WEEK 2007

19-23 November

Safer together, safer wherever

Are You Ready ?

Every November, the Anti-Bullying Alliance (ABA) shines a light on bullying, sending a clear and positive message that bullying is neither acceptable nor inevitable. This year's Anti-Bullying Week theme is bullying in the wider community, with the 2007 slogan 'Safer together, safer wherever' reminding us that we all have a role to play in keeping children safe wherever they are.

An Anti-Bullying Week resource pack will be sent to all schools in September. Keep checking the website for the 'virtual' pack, regularly updated with ideas, essential resources and information.

Be part of the nation's biggest Anti-Bullying Week of action through:

NEW ABA Audit Toolkit designed to help schools (and local authorities) assess, report and make informed responses to bullying. Developed by leading researchers and practitioners, it is free to download.

ABA Pin Badges show your commitment to stop bullying and reward children and young people for their efforts. See reverse to order.

Postcards giving practical advice to children and young people, parents, carers and staff. A free set will be distributed to all schools in England in September and further sets can be purchased, see reverse to order.

Anti-Bullying Conference (Nov 19) presented by Children & Young People Now and Anti-Bullying Alliance. Discussion topics include Safe to Learn guidance, Cyberbullying, Homophobic bullying, Racist bullying and Disability and bullying. www.antibullyingconference.com

'Blue Friday' (Nov 23) celebrate the last day of Anti-Bullying week and dress in blue to demonstrate your commitment against bullying whilst taking part in a range of activities and events.
