

World AIDS DAY 2007

December 1st

Have you ordered your FREE World AIDS DAY Campaign Pack for 2007 yet? It contains red ribbons, leaflet and posters as well as up to date information on HIV/AIDS, with links to local and national services. 40 other schools and organisations already have, and many have also accessed the National AIDS Trust FREE downloadable schools resources which contain all sorts of ideas for marking the day in your school this year.

If you want a pack or to download the National AIDS Trust resources, visit the HERON website at www.heron.nhs.uk and click on the leaflet catalogue icon for professionals, then on sexual health. You will also find you can order online, many other sexual health leaflets and posters to support your work, including the NEW downloadable sexual health agencies service directory and a NEW booklet for young people who fancy people of the same sex called SORTED OUT.

A large collection of Sex and Relationships Education teaching resources are also available for loan from the Millennium Library.
