KS2 : GIFTED AND TALENTED IN RE

LAT Blaylock,
Keynote Speaker
presents
KS2: Gifted and Talented in RE

Course Aims

- ♦ To identify what is meant by gifted and talented in RE.
- ♦ Explore and examine ways to motivate and challenge able and gifted and talented pupils.
- ♦ To contribute to E.C.M. : Enjoy and achieve

Course Content

The day will provide many active strategies that encourage able, gifted and talented pupils to reach their potential in RE. Through examples drawn from Christianity, Islam and Hinduism, ways to develop pupils' creative, questioning, philosophical and thinking skills will be highlighted. Teachers will go away with numerous strategies to try out with their higher achieving pupils.

Course Leader

Lat Blaylock is an RE adviser with RE Today and edits the magazine of the same title. His career began as RE teacher in a multi-cultural comprehensive school in Leicester. Having joined RE Today in 1994, he writes, leads INSET and is a consultant on RE to bodies which include the BBC, Christian Aid, the Inter Faith Network, the Bible Society and many local authorities and schools.

As a prominent speaker with a reputation for inspiring practical ideas, this course offers delegates the opportunity to benefit from his valuable experiences and network with RE colleagues from East Anglia.
