

Guardians to the King

Terracotta Treasures from Ancient China

Colchester Castle, Essex 19 July – 2 November 2008

From the ancient tombs of the Kings of Chu don't miss this spectacular exhibition of 43 miniature terracotta figures.

Dating back 2000 years, the terracotta figures from Xuzhou Museum, Jiangsu Province, China have never been to the UK before and cannot be seen anywhere else in the country.

Featuring soldiers, officials, dancers, musicians and cavalry horses you will be enchanted with so many fantastic characters to discover.

Part of the Essex Jiangsu Festival and in partnership with Essex County Council – don't miss this once-in-a-lifetime chance!

Admission fee to Colchester Castle applies, no extra charge for the exhibition
Mon – Sat 10am – 5pm Sun 11am – 5pm

Tel: 01206 282939

www.colchestermuseums.org.uk

Part of the Essex Jiangsu Festival www.essex-china.org

Advance Tickets

Why not buy your tickets now for this fantastic exhibition by visiting www.visiteastofengland.com/guardians

If you are travelling by train make the most of our excellent package with National Express visit www.nationalexpress.com/letsgo for details.

Or buy your tickets on arrival at Colchester Castle on the day of your visit.

RENAISSANCE
EAST OF ENGLAND museums for changing lives

Essex County Council

the essex • jiangsu festival
2008-2009
埃塞克斯-江苏节

national express

EAST ANGLIAN
DAILY TIMES

sgrcolchester 96.1FM - ONLINE

nes north essex signs www.nes-solutions.co.uk

Our vision is to create a museum service that is a source of pride, inspiration and fun.