

Dates for Artsmark Training in Grantham: Autumn 2008

Following the success of the Artsmark training day held in Grantham on the 10th June 2008, two further events are being planned for the Autumn term.

Schools that attended the part 1 training, (Introduction and Overview to Artsmark on the 10th June), may now wish to book for the part 2 event on the 4th November. For schools that are new to Artsmark and have not attended a part 1 day, the Introduction and Overview to Artsmark event will be running again on the 30th September. Please see below for dates of courses:

30th September 2008

Introduction and Overview to Artsmark (part 1)

4th November 2008

Completing Artsmark Application Forms (part 2)

Schools can book for both courses, places are limited so please book early if possible. The training is beneficial to all schools, including Primary, Junior, Special, Independent and Secondary schools. Teachers/Headteacher/arts-coordinators will benefit from the training.

Further Event Details

The training is run by EIAT Creative Education and supported by Arts Council England.

Training Venue:

Guildhall Arts Centre - Grantham
St. Peter's Hill
Grantham
Lincolnshire
NG31 6PZ

(Please do not contact the Guildhall Arts Centre directly, for enquiries please contact the EIAT Creative Education office on 01484 487994, thank you)

This training is beneficial to all schools either applying for the first time or re-applying.

The specialist Artsmark trainer who delivers the training is Ken Gouge, who is an Artsmark specialist with up-to-date knowledge of the Artsmark award initiative. EIAT Creative Education have been providing this training since 2006. Ken Gouge is a member of the Artsmark validation national Project Team.

Benefits of applying for the Artsmark award include:

- Provides a benchmark for arts opportunities in schools
- Increases opportunities to staff for Professional Development
- Raises the profile of schools in local communities
- Gives children access to a creative education across the whole curricular
