

THEIR PAST YOUR FUTURE

FREE

one-day conferences for teachers exploring the power and relevance of Intergenerational Learning at Key Stage 3

4 November 2008 or 25 November 2008

Directly linked to the revised Key Stage 3 Curricula for English, History and Citizenship

- Practical workshops
- Free resources to use in school
- Case studies of successful projects
- Keynote speech by Dale Banham, Humanities Advisor in Suffolk

LOTTERY FUNDED

Specific links to the revised National Curriculum for History include:

Key Concepts

- Identifying and explaining change and continuity within and across periods of history
- Analysing and explaining the reasons for, and results of, historical events, situations and changes
- Considering the significance of events, people and developments in their historical context and in the present day

Key Processes

- Historical enquiry
- Using evidence
- Communicating about the past

The Day will include

- Practical workshops demonstrating how to run a successful project with students, veterans and museums, with free resources to use in school
- Case studies highlighting successful projects between schools, veterans and museums from around the region
- Keynote speech by Dale Banham, Humanities Advisor in Suffolk
- Lunch and refreshments provided

For further details contact Joyce Murdoch, Learning and Access Manager at the Imperial War Museum Duxford by e mail: jmurdoch@iwm.org.uk