

RSPB Wildlife Explorers invite you to see

Waders & Grazers

A special FUN SHOW
all about Coastal birds of Britain

Devised & Presented by the Fabulous
Ticklish Allsorts

A collection of silly songs, jokes, rhymes, stories and pictures about water birds. Great participation.
Suitable for children 5 -
and everyone interested in wild life!

The Royal Society for Protection of Birds has over 1 million members, including a very large Junior membership of some 130,000 k RSPB Wildlife Explorers. This is the largest wildlife club of its kind in Europe, and still growing! Many schools have their own club.

The RSPB has commissioned Ticklish Allsorts, one of the country's top professional family entertainers, to perform their special "Waders & Grazers" Roadshow at the NORFOLK Event on Saturday 5th October 2002. Details as below

It is not a slide show, or a serious lecture, and there are no live birds on display, but the show is about 60 mins long, packed full of fun information about British coastal birds.

We would be delighted to welcome any of your school to the WILD ABOUT NORFOLK DAY if you would kindly bring this event to the attention of your school.

Norwich RSPB Members Group in association with Norfolk Wildlife Trust

Present Wild About Norfolk wildlife conservation fair - Saturday 5th October 2002

Connaught Hall, Attleborough Open 10am - 3.00pm

Waders & Grazers Shows at 11.00am and 2.00pm. FREE

Contact: Trevor Atkins