Oxburgh Explorer

New Schools Programme for 2003

- Wide range of activities suitable for key stages 1 & 2
- Each explorer activity last approximately 1 hour for up to 20 pupils
- Select any number of activities
- Activities can be self-guided or supported by an Education Guide

Each Oxburgh Explorer activity costs £20 per day (repeat as often as needed throughout the day). Each use of Educational guide 50p per pupil.

All Explorer activities can run from 10.45am, including those located in the Hall.

Oxburgh Hall Explorer (Guided only*)

Delve into the past of this magnificent moated Tudor manor house and discover some of its secrets. Learn about the Priest's Hole, secret doors, ghosts and prisoners. See the signatures of Kings and Queens.

Woodland Explorer

A scientific study of the woodland habitat, including invertebrates, trees and plants; use all your senses to understand this secret place!

Tudor Domestic Life Explorer (Guided only*)

Handle artefacts from tableware to talisman! What are they made from? What were they used for? Was life in Tudor times so very different from today?

Freshwater Explorer

Dip, discover and study the fascinating life in our stream. Learn about foodwebs and some of the ferocious creatures that live under the water.

Tudor Buildings Explorer

How and why was the Hall built? What was it built from? When was it changed? Follow the picture clues to discover Oxburgh Hall's secrets.

Art Explorer

Record your observations of the Hall and its beautiful surroundings. Use signs and symbols to design a 'Tudor' portrait or create your very own Bestiary of hearsay animals!

Chapel Explorer

What is a Chapel and how is it used? Follow the photo clues to learn about pulpits, priest doors, coats of arms and triptychs!

Compass Explorer

Learn how to use a Silva compass and then test your newfound skills on a variety of courses through the orchard.

Oxburgh Hall is open every Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday for school visits from late March to early November.

Admission at party rate £2.30 per child. Educational Group Members FREE.
