

Grassroots

Arts in Education

Zimbabwean Theatre for Development Group

Grassroots is a performing arts organisation specialising in Theatre for Development, using dance, drama and music as a process towards informing and empowering local communities in Zimbabwe and abroad.

Grassroots will be touring Norfolk schools in the autumn term 2003 offering schools their vibrant workshops and performances, focussed on issues of cultural diversity with an AIDS/HIV programme aimed specifically at secondary schools, developed in association with the Norfolk HIV and Sexual Health Unit

There will also be the opportunity for secondary school pupils to participate in a workshop with Grassroots and MA Theatre and Development students at the UEA Drama Studio.

For information and bookings contact:
Anna McCarthy
Arts in Education
Partnership
Co-ordinator
anna.mccarthy@norfolk.gov.uk
01603 433276

Grassroots are supported by the Norwich Cathedral Grassroots Committee

