

Battle of Britain Lace Panel

This commemorative lace panel will be displayed at the Forum during Battle of Britain Week Visit between 15 - 21 September From 10.00am to 4.30pm daily

The intricate work depicts scenes from the Battle of Britain:

The aircraft flown during the battle
The buildings bombed in London
An Airman parachuting to safety The badges of the allies fighting with us for the freedom that was being threatened

Short talks will be given by F/Lt Reg Sheppard who originally displayed the panel in 1946

If you or groups from your school would like to participate in this interesting and informative free event, please contact Reg Sheppard on 01692 630991.
