TWO SEMINARS ON AUTISTIC SPECTRUM DISORDER

at the Great House Training Centre, 300 St Faiths Road, Old Catton, Norwich Tuesdays 11 November and 18 November 2003 - 10 am to 1 pm

LEADER: David Moat, ASD Training and Advice, Colchester

Tuesday 11 November	Introduction to Autistic Spectrum Disorders
	This seminar is aimed at parents of newly diagnosed children or professionals new to working with autistic clients. It will provide information about the core deficits, as well as clear, practical strategies. Delegates will be introduced to the thought processing that seems to go on in people with autistic spectrum disorders.
Tuesday 18 November	Parenting children with an autistic spectrum disorder
	This is a new seminar, aimed at dealing with all those tricky questions that are often avoided or glossed over by professionals. We will look at discipline, homework, sex education, managing the domestic routine, siblings … and anything else that comes up on the day!

Fees:	Professionals	£15 per session or £27.50 for two
	Parents	£8 per session or £15 for two (inclusive of coffee)

If you wish to attend both or one of the above seminars, please complete and return the form below by November 3 with a cheque made payable to the Norfolk Autistic Society, or with the name of the organisation to whom an invoice should be sent. We are limited to 50 places, so please return your form as early as possible.
