

To: The Literacy Co-ordinator/Head of English

Poets in School

Interactive performances & workshops for all ages with professional poets, storytellers & musicians

James Armstrong & Victoria Shoemith

"Even the least able felt included in the workshops. It inspired the whole school and the work produced was displayed and appreciated by everyone."
Mrs Pippa Bird, Deputy Head Teacher, Southwater Infant School, Southwater, West Sussex.

You really went down a storm! Even parents are commenting on the new-found love of poetry while reading with their children.
Corinne Fletcher, Literacy Co-ordinator, Northmead Junior School, Guildford, Surrey.

"Thank you once again for a brilliant day at our school. The staff are constantly coming up to me and asking if we can have you back again!"
Neil Sears, Deputy Headteacher, Meadowgate School. Wisbech, Cambs.

"You made poetry fun, but emphasised that there is a serious side. An excellent day for staff and children, who were all totally enthralled."
Roger Power, Literacy Co-ordinator, Longlands Primary School, Sidcup, Kent.

- Exciting performances of original poetry, stories and songs.
- Dynamic and stimulating workshops for all ages.
- Costumes, masks, props and puppets.
- Lots of audience participation, creating a fun-packed, educational experience.
- Every type of school from Nursery to Secondary, plus festivals & other events.
- In-service training for teachers and work in FE and AE.
- Close links to National Curriculum Key Stages and NLS Framework.
- Over 800 schools visited since 1999.
- Members of NAWA and Musicians Union.

For bookings, details or information pack:

Telephone: 01843 570495 Mobile: 07769 723760

Email: poetsinschool@yahoo.co.uk Website: www.poetsinschool.com