

DYSPRAXIA FOUNDATION

in conjunction with the DF Norfolk Support Group

BOXING CLEVER

101 Different gadgets and gizmos to help specific learning difficulties at home and at school.

presented by Barbara Hunter

Outreach Co-ordinator at Wilson Stuart School, Birmingham

Inclusion Advisor for Birmingham LEA

National & International Speaker

Saturday, 12 June 2004

Congregation Hall, University of East Anglia, Norwich

Over time Barbara has built up a significant amount of expertise in identifying and supporting pupils with Developmental Co-ordination Difficulties and associated conditions. The practical strategies that she has developed for use in the classroom and at home have been welcomed by teachers and parents alike.

Through a lively and stimulating presentation Barbara will demonstrate a range of resources - some that you might not have seen before, others that will make you look at everyday objects in a different light and finally the 'Blue Peter' approach. This will be a thoroughly enjoyable day for parents, teachers, learning and support staff that will leave you full of great ideas and enthusiasm.

The day will start with the Dyspraxia Foundation's AGM followed by 'Boxing Clever' from 11.00am to 3.30pm. A full day of ideas and strategies to include lunch, exhibition and the opportunity to purchase resources.

Fees: Professional £50 Parents £40 (Members of the Foundation receive 10% discount)
