Poets in School

Interactive performances & workshops

for all ages with professional poets
James Armstrong & Geraldine
Aldridge

"Wonderful!"

- Buckingham Primary School, Hampton, Middlesex.

"So much pupil participation!"

- Airthrie School, Cheltenham, Gloucs.

"Poetry is all around the school!"

- Nevill Road Infants School, Stockport, Cheshire.

James and Geraldine are full-time poets who visit nursery, primary, secondary, special, summer schools, libraries and other venues country-wide. Their exciting performances include original poetry, songs and stories with costumes, masks, props, puppetry and plenty of audience participation, creating a fun-packed, educational experience.

They offer a range of dynamic and stimulating workshops for all ages which are linked closely to the National Curriculum Key Stages and the National Literacy Strategy. They also work in FE, AE and provide in-service training for teachers. They are members of the Poetry Society and the National Association of Writers in Education (NAWE).
