

A Journey Through Time

1000 years of history in a day!

Norwich Cathedral
Saturday 29th May 2004
10.00am – 4.00pm
FREE ENTRY

Time travel with many of the characters that have lived, worshipped and even fought within this fine Cathedral!

Vikings * Saxons * Norman Baron * Benedictine Monk * Medieval Herbalist * Civil War Soldiers
* World War II Home Guard
and many more!

PLUS

- Storytelling
- See Gustavus the dancing bear
- Dress up in Historical Costume
 - Join in with Tudor dance
 - Help build a mini Cathedral
 - Join the Civil War Pike Drill
 - Crafts, textiles and calligraphy
- Learn about Tudor food for rich and poor and a whole lot more!

ALSO – Take a tour of the Close and discover our Viking Heritage!

A GREAT DAY OUT FOR ALL THE FAMILY

For more information telephone Saul Penfold on 01603 218320 or visit www.cathedral.org.uk

These activities are planned at the following times and locations:

Gustavus the Dancing Bear:
Cloisters, 11.30am and 2.00pm

Storytelling:
Cloisters, 11.45am and 2.15pm

Pike Drill:
Cloisters, 12.15pm and 3.00pm

Discover the Viking history of the Cathedral Close:
Meet at the Welcome Desk, 10.30am and 3.15pm

Tudor Dancing:
The Great West Door, 10.15am, 11.00am, 12.00pm,
1.30pm and 2.30pm

All other activities and characters are not timed and will run throughout the day.

www.cathedral.org.uk