

HUNGATE MEDIEVAL ART

Summer Holiday Activities

Workshops are fully supervised. Limited places so pre-booking essential, £8 for half day or £14 for two half days booked together. Children may stay at the centre fully supervised during the lunch hour, please bring a packed lunch.

To book, T. 01603623254 (Tues-Sat, 10.00- 16.00)
or e. Dale.Copley@hungate.org.uk

Be a Medieval Craftsman

12th August 2009

Stained Glass Painting

10am-12.30pm

Calling budding artists come and explore a different artistic medium. Paint a glass panel to take home and take part in a giant stained glass art attack!

Build a Medieval Building

1.30pm-4.00pm

Find out more about medieval buildings by modelling your own. Can you make a building useful to its users? Solid enough to keep the neighbours happy? And flamboyant enough to satisfy you patrons?

Be a Medieval Artist

19th August 2009

Medieval Words and Pictures

10am-12.30pm

Authors and artists needed. The canon wants a new window! Explore the stories in stained glass windows, write your own medieval story and paint glass panels to make a narrative story window.

Medieval Fashion Show

1.30pm-4.00pm

Take a different look at medieval fashions by putting on a medieval fashion show. Design and make medieval headdresses and take part in a real photo shoot. The workshop culminates in a fashion show attended by parents and guardians.

Hungate Medieval Art, St Peter Hungate Church, Princes St, Norwich, NR31AE.

www.hungate.org.uk